Kena Hollingsworth to Speak at Indiana University School of Law—Indianapolis

Kena S. Hollingsworth, founding partner of Hollingsworth Sever Storey & Zivitz, PC (“HSSZ”), will speak to law students at the Indiana University School of Law in Indianapolis on Friday, March 27, 2009. The law school’s Office of Professional Development has teamed up with the Indianapolis Bar Association’s Professionalism Committee to create a practical program designed to help law students be better prepared to begin their legal careers. This day-long program entitled “Surviving & Thriving as a New Lawyer” will cover many topics to help law students grasp the nuances of practicing law, from professionalism and ethics to managing client expectations and work/life balance. Kena joins an esteemed group of legal professionals to present at the program including John Maley and Tony Prather of Barnes & Thornburg, Scott Himsel of Baker & Daniels, along with the Honorable Jane Magnus-Stinson and the Honorable Tim Baker, both U.S. Magistrate Judges for the Southern District of Indiana.

Kena is a graduate of Indiana University School of Law in Indianapolis and continues to be very active in the Indianapolis community. In addition to her dedication to practicing divorce and family law at HSSZ, Kena is a member of the Hamilton County, Boone County, Indianapolis, Indiana and American Bar Associations and their family law sections. She is a member of the executive committee of the family law section of the Indianapolis Bar Association. Kena also serves as a volunteer for Ask a Lawyer, Legal Lines and Kids’ Voice, and provides free legal assistance to clients through Heartland’s Pro Bono Program.

In 2008, Kena was recognized by the Indianapolis Business Journal as one of Indianapolis’ “Forty under 40.” She has also been named a top 10 finalist for “Indy’s Best and Brightest” for the last two years and is a recipient of the “Colts Community Quarterback Award” for demonstrating outstanding service to the community through volunteerism. She is a graduate of the FBI Citizens’ Academy and currently serves on the board of directors of the FBI Citizens’ Academy as well as the People’s Burn Foundation, The Salvation Army and Carmel Lawyers 4 Charity.

Hollingsworth Sever Storey & Zivitz, PC is a full-service family law team, offering a compassionate and resolution-focused approach to family law, combining effective client advocacy with patience, empathy and understanding. HSSZ is dedicated to finding “real solutions” for “real people” with “real problems.” Practice areas include family law, estate planning, elder law, education law, and eminent domain/real estate law.
