Ryan Cassman Appointed President of Hamilton County Bar Association's Family Law Section

Ryan H. Cassman, a partner of Hollingsworth Sever Storey & Zivitz, PC ("HSSZ"), was appointed as president of the Hamilton County Bar Association's Family Law Section.

Ryan chairs the family law section at HSSZ where his practice is committed to divorce and family law. He earned his Juris Doctor from Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis and his undergraduate degree from Indiana University, where he majored in psychology and kinesiology.

Ryan has extensive family law experience, having represented clients for several years in all areas of matrimonial law, including dissolutions of marriage, custody, child support, paternity, post-dissolution matters and litigating contested adoptions.

In addition to his active participation with the Hamilton County Bar Association, Ryan is a member of the Boone County, Indianapolis, Indiana and American Bar Associations and their family law sections. He has consistently accepted pro bono and court appointed cases for clients who could otherwise not obtain legal services and regularly volunteers with Hamilton County Guardian Ad Litem program and the Heartland Pro Bono Council. Ryan also serves on the board of directors of Educational Services Company, LLC.

Hollingsworth Sever Storey & Zivitz, PC is a full-service family law team, offering a compassionate and resolution-focused approach to family law, combining effective client advocacy with patience, empathy and understanding. HSSZ is dedicated to finding "real solutions" for "real people" with "real problems." Practice areas include family law, estate planning, elder law, education law, and eminent domain/real estate law.
