

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KENA S. HOLLINGSWORTH RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF FIVE FINALIST FOR THE 2009 YOUNG PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARD

OCTOBER 16, 2009 – Kena S. Hollingsworth, a founding partner of Hollingsworth & Zivitz, PC, was recognized by the Young Professionals of Central Indiana (YPCI) as one of five finalists for the 2009 Young Professional of the Year Award. Kena was honored at the YPCI gala Friday, October 9th, 2009 at Lucas Oil Stadium in the Quarterback Suite. The highlight of the evening was guest speaker, Ron Hunter, [head coach for the men’s basketball team at IUPUI], who talked to the group about his experiences with Samaritan’s Feet. The gala also included a silent auction with proceeds benefiting the Community Health Network Foundation.

Kena concentrates her practice in divorce and family law. In addition to being a family law litigator, she is also a registered family law mediator. Kena is a graduate of the University of Southern Indiana and earned her Juris Doctor at the Indiana University School of Law in Indianapolis. Very active in community, she is a member of the Hamilton County, Boone County, Indianapolis, Indiana and American Bar Associations and their family law sections. She serves on the executive committee of the Indianapolis Bar Association’s Family Law Section and serves on the Advisory Panel for the American Bar Association. Kena also serves on the Board of Directors for the FBI Citizens’ Academy, as well as on the advisory board of The People’s Burn Foundation. She volunteers for Dress for Success Indianapolis, Ask a Lawyer and Legal Lines.

In addition to being named one of Indy’s Best & Brightest the last 3 years, Kena was the recipient of the “Colts Community Quarterback Award” in 2007 for her outstanding volunteer efforts; and recognized by the Indianapolis Business Journal as one of Indianapolis’ Forty under 40 in 2008. She was also named 2009 Indiana Rising Stars by Indiana Super Lawyers Magazine and Indianapolis Monthly.
